SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Sheriff's investigators released a composite drawing of the residential robbery suspect from the occurrence in Granite Bay on Monday, March 4th. The suspect forced his way into a residence and assaulted and robbed the female victim.

The suspect was described as a male black, in his late twenties or early thirties, with a light complexion and was clean-shaven. He was approximately 5 feet, 8 inches tall, had short close-cropped hair and was described as possibly being of mixed race. The suspect was boyish looking, had a clear complexion and had facial features described as delicate. He was carrying a date book when he left the residence and entered a dark blue mini van that then left the area.

Another local resident saw the suspect in the Granite Bay area several days earlier. The description given by this resident closely matches that given by the victim of the robbery.
